Deputy Director's Staff Meeting

Wednesday
10 January 1951

Mr. Reber reported that he had seen the military members of the IAC and discussed his coordinating functions and that he was now reviewing the question of whether there should be an IAC Standing Committee.

Mr. Reber reported that he had discussed with O/PC their requirements for National Security Council documents and they had agreed that if one copy were forwarded to Mr. Dulles they could make use of that.

Mr. Jackson suggested that a briefing SOP be set up for attaches going abroad, and that there be agreement by all offices in CIA on such a SOP.

Mr. McConnel returned the NSC statement on intelligence leaks, and Mr. Jackson agreed that this should be issued to all CIA personnel.

Mr. Dulles reported that the instructions for [redacted] were being circulated for comment. 25X1

It was agreed that Mr. [redacted] would be designated to assist Mr. Matt Baird in Training. 25X1
